

Study Leave for Foundation Doctors

This document should be read in conjunction with the All Wales Study Leave Policy for Doctors and Dentists in Training.

Entitlements – Time & Budget

The time entitlement in Foundation is split between the F1 and F2 years of training.

Foundation Year 1
Up to 2 days for ALS course completion ¹
Up to 5 days for tasters ³
Up to 2 days general study leave ⁴
Total – Up to 9 days

Foundation Year 2
3 days for F2 Study Days ²
5 days generic teaching ²
Up to 5 days for tasters ³
Up to 8 days for general study leave ⁴
Total – Up to 21 days

No Study Budget available

£480 study budget

Foundation Doctors undertaking a Specialised F1 Programme are also entitled to take up to 5 additional days and £250 of study leave budget to support the academic component of their post.

¹ The ALS course is arranged by local postgraduate centres, usually towards the start of the training year.

² F2 Study Days and generic teaching are timetabled by Health Boards and attendance is compulsory.

³ Careers/Leadership tasters should ideally be undertaken within the same Health Board, although they can be undertaken within Wales where there is a specific reason.

⁴ General study leave can be taken to attend/present at conferences and for sitting exams necessary for career advancement. Time off to prepare for exams and “private study” is not permitted.