

Getting to us:

 Hilton Cardiff, Kingsway, Greyfriars Road, Cardiff CF10 3HH

By Car

Be aware that central Cardiff has one-way systems, pedestrianised areas, and potential city centre traffic. Offsite parking is available near the hotel (charges apply).

From the East

Exit the M4 Westbound at Junction 29 onto the A48(M), signposted for Cardiff East. Continue on the A48(M) until you reach the city centre turn-offs. Follow signs for City Centre/Docks/Cardiff Bay (A4232). Follow signs for City Centre and Cardiff Castle. Hilton Cardiff is located on Kingsway, opposite Cardiff Castle and City Hall.

From the West

Exit the M4 Eastbound at Junction 33 onto the A4232, signposted for Cardiff West. Continue on the A4232, following signs for City Centre/Docks/Cardiff Bay. Merge onto A470 (Northern Avenue) and follow signs for the City Centre/Cardiff Castle. Continue until you reach the area of Cardiff Castle and City Hall. The hotel is located on Kingsway.

By Train

Hilton Cardiff is approximately a 15-20 minute walk from Cardiff Central Station. Exit the main entrance and head straight up St Mary Street (which becomes High Street/Castle Street) towards Cardiff Castle. Turn right onto Kingsway at the Castle roundabout. The hotel is on your left, facing City Hall.

By Bus

Many local and national bus services terminate at or pass near Cardiff Central Bus Station. From the Bus Station, you can either walk (15-20 minutes, as per the Train directions) or take a connecting local bus to a stop closer to Cardiff Castle or City Hall on Kingsway. Specific bus routes (like some serving the Bay or North Cardiff) may stop directly on Kingsway near the hotel. Check local bus schedules for the most direct route from your starting point.

By Air (via Cardiff Airport)

Cardiff Airport is located about 12 miles (19 km) south-west of the city centre. The T9 Traws Cymru Express bus runs directly from the airport terminal to Cardiff City Centre. The bus stops close to Cardiff Central Station and St Mary Street, requiring a short walk or taxi ride to the Hilton.

We look forward to welcoming you soon

Hilton
CARDIFF